A LARGE PARTY

Of Wheeling Business Men Goes to Canton This Morning.

WILL CALL ON MAJOR M'KINLEY

And Ask Him to Review the Great Jollification Parade in this City this Evening—List of the Distinguished Party of West Virginians—It is Barely Hoped that the President-Elect will Accept the Invitation.

This morning a large and distinguished party of Wheeling and West Virginia Republicans and sound money Democrats will go to Canton on a special train of private cars, via the Wheeling & Lake Erie, and wait upon President-elect McKinley. The party is made up of business men and prominent party men, who are anxious to pay their respects to the Republican Presidential candidate and invite him to come to Wheeling to-night to review the great Jollification and sound money Jollification. It is barely hoped that Mr. McKinley will be able to accept the invitation, but as he has expressed a desire for quiet it is probable he will decline to come.

The following will compose the party:
N. B. Scott, J. K. Hall, Thomas Norton, J. N. Vance, G. C. Dewey, Huilthen Quarrier, W. P. Hubbard, C. B. Hart, S. S. Bloch, J. R. McCourtney, C. W. Franzheim, G. W. Atkinson, John Frew, B. B. Dovener, W. H. Jamison, N. E. Whitaker, C. R. Hubbard, C. A. Robinson, W. L. Glessner, Edward C. Ewing, John A. Topping, Randolph Stauffer, Frank J. Hearn, George A. Hurt, Henry Haer, Morris Horkheimer, Nathan Goff, Joseph Spidel, B. H. Hekensderfer, H. J. Booth, R. B. Franzheim, Morgan L. Ott, D. E. Stalnaker, B. K. McLechen, O. J. Boyd, J. F. Townsend.

The party will occupy the two private cars of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railway, which have been placed at the disposal of the Wheeling people by Mr. J. P. Townsend, assistant general freight agent of the company whose efforts during the late campaign in the cause of sound money among railroaders were valuable and efficient.

DIED IN A CHAIR

In a Blacksmith Shop—Gilbert Lavey's Peculiar End.

Yesterday afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock, Gilbert Lavey, of Charles street, died while sitting in a chair in Wilson's blacksmith shop, on Tenth street. He had been sitting in the chair since noon and at the hour mentioned, was discovered by one of the workmen to be in a stupor, from which he never recovered. Dr. Hupp was called, but his services were not necessary. The deceased has always been afflicted with lung trouble, and from his birth has had a weak constitution, and his sudden death was not unexpected, as lately he has been rapidly sinking in health. The body was removed to Friend & Son's undertaking establishment where last night at eight o'clock, Coroner Schulze held the inquest. A verdict was rendered that the deceased died a natural death. Gilbert Lavey was over thirty-four years of age and unmarried.

THAT POSTOFFICE ROBBERY

At Greengsville Stirs Up the Authorities But No Arrests are Yet Made.

Thieves broke into the postoffice and general store of W. E. Criss, of Greengsville, five miles back of the city Thursday night and carried off merchandise amounting to $100. No stamps were taken, but some small change was taken from the postoffice drawer. The thieves gained an entrance to the postoffice through the store, both being in the same building. Sheriff Franzheim went out to investigate the robbery yesterday morning and laid the facts before the postal authorities. The mail matter was disturbed, but no serious damage was done, yet the matter will be looked after by the postal authorities. In the afternoon Sheriff Franzheim, Deputy United States Marshal McMahon and two postoffice inspectors from Pittsburgh went out to Greengsville and were said to be in possession of a clue, but no arrests had been made last night.

Week of Prayer for Young Men.

Thirty years ago the North American Young Men's Christian Association inaugurated an annual week of prayer for young men and work among them. The second week in November has been faithfully observed as the special season of prayer during all these years. The Wheeling Association will observe the week this year as it has done each year since its organization.

On Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Dr. J. L. Sney will address a Men's meeting. There will be wide awake singing and the meeting will be of special interest.

Each night next week young men's meetings will be held at the association building. In order not to conflict with the evening educational classes, the meetings will begin at 8:45 o'clock.

Sunday afternoon, the 15th, a union meeting will be held at which there will be addresses on the general work of the associations throughout the world.

The Dramatic Club.

Last evening, in the parlors of the Carroll club, the members interested in the formation of the dramatic club, met and perfected an organization by electing the following officers: President, Charles Ray; vice president, Thomas Doyle; secretary, Catherine Galtier; treasurer, Margaret O'Kane; executive committee, Dr. Winger, M. J. Ford, Charles Ray, Mr. Hughes and Miss Joyce; property man, Bernard Winger; prompter, James O'Kane. Much interest was manifested and the organization will likely prove a very popular one during the coming winter months. The meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

An Important Difference.

To make it appear to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company only, and sold by all druggists.

MUST be some good reasons for our big cloak business. If interested, come to-day and look through. This will explain why.

There is an Old Saying

That "when a man understands his business his work is half done." We claim to have a most thorough knowledge of our business in all its details. With our carefully selected stock, our facilities and experience, we feel certain of being able to make well-dressed men of our patrons with greater ease and economy than any other concern that we know of.

A man doesn't buy a suit or an overcoat every day and before he pays over his money he ought to be well satisfied as to the fashion, cut and good quality of the clothes. We are ready to exhibit our goods and name our prices to all who care to inquire, and we particularly invite critical inspection and comparisons of values.
